

Date Nights Contest Rules

Entry

In order to nominate a family to win a Date Nights evening, fill out the nomination form on the Avergan Foundation website with all required information. The family that is being nominated has to have at least one child with an autism spectrum disorder. The person nominating the family can be anonymous. You can nominate yourself.

Winner will receive 4 (four) hours of certified child care services from Naptown Nannies (www.naptownnannies.com) and a gift certificate to a local Annapolis restaurant in the amount of $100.00 or $150.00 (depending on restaurant). The night out can be planned at the convenience of both the winning family and Naptown Nannies (or other qualified child care option).

The Deadline

Submit your form at any time during the year. Date Nights awards will be made on/by April 30th and on or by October 30th of each year.

The Winners

The winner will be randomly selected from all the nominations received during the submission period.

Winner Notification

The winner will be notified using the email provided in the nomination form.

The Prize Acceptance

The winner must respond via email within 48 hours of contacted. Winner must be willing to have their names and story published on the Avergan Foundation website and social media outlets, such as Facebook, Twitter, etc. If the winner does not meet the above requirements, an alternate winner will be selected.

The Alternate Winner

An alternate winner will be randomly selected if the original winner does not respond appropriately based on the prize acceptance requirements explained above.
